Short description of the enterprise activities and aims

Youth Action for Peace Italy (YAP IT), non profit organization founded in 1971, organises and realises international voluntary projects, seminars, training courses for intercultural youth animators, hosting and sending of young volunteers, campaigns, information projects and thematic communication. Its structure is based on a network of local groups and partner associations. Involved to the voluntary action in the territory, the organisation implements activities of centralised and decentralised information, communication and education of the youth to active citizenship at the European dimension. YAP Italy also contributes to the involvement and sending of socially, culturally or economically disadvantaged youth and young people at risk to itineraries of non formal education aimed at stimulating their personal capacities growth inside the community. YAP IT is member of CCIYS – Unesco (Coordinating Committee for International Voluntary Service) and of ALLIANCE of European Voluntary Service Organisations.

The main activities in the office are following:

- sending Italian volunteers abroad for international voluntary projects;
- organizing international workcamps in Italy and hosting international volunteers;
- working in frame of Youth in Action Programme (seminars, trainings, youth exchanges, European Voluntary Service);
- distributing of promotional materials and creating a newsletter.
