

Do you want to become the State President? Or possibly - a diplomat, lawyer, prosecutor or judge? Maybe you just want to be able to understand legal subtleties so as to be able to advise others?

Do not hesitate – the programme of daytime studies offered by the College of Law is an ideal first step towards reaching these goals!

This two-year study programme at the College of Law allows you to get a higher education and a firm grasp of basic issues in regard to: civil law, labour law, state and administrative law, criminal law, European Union law and international law! There is no discipline, nor profession nor anyone already in a post that cannot but benefit from familiarisation with legal issues.

You will follow some of your studies abroad in the second year of study. A semester at an institution of higher education in Great Britain, Germany, France or Switzerland will provide knowledge that will give an international flavour to your studies as well as allowing you to strengthen grasp of foreign languages.

It is well-known that there is a shortage of engineers in Latvia, but did you know that the number of legal specialists in Latvia in terms of numbers per one thousand inhabitants is four times lower than say in the USA. Do you know that the legal profession in Latvia is not only one of the most popular but also one of the best paid?

All graduates from the daytime study programme at the College of Law already during the second year of study end to receive job offers, as well as gain the right to pursue studies in the third year at another institution of higher education.

The College of Law is the oldest internationally accredited college in Latvia and we are proud of our knowledgeable and friendly lecturers. We should like to be proud of you, providing that you do not miss the deadline for registering as a student. Please also note that the best of the best students at the College of Law pursue their studies free of student fees!
